Hotel Elefant

This charming and fully renovated hotel is a favourite of ours. Its winning location in the heart of Salzburg's old town, and its Austrian interior design make it quite attractive for anyone who looks for an authentic stay. It's particularly recommended for couples but can also be fitting for families.

Make sure you book in advance as prices of such hotels go quite high in the peak season.

H+ Hotel Salzburg

The H+ Hotel Salzburg is located right across from the main train station, making it a fantastic choice for travelers, especially if you have a lot of luggage. While it is not as central as other hotels we recommended in this guide, it does have its benefits. One example is its impressive two-floor fitness and spa facility, where you can start your morning with an energizing workout. Hotels in this area can be more budget friendly than ones in the inner city, so it's worth checking out.
